MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 5th August, 1954

SUBJECT.—Import of Art Silk Yarn.

No. 72-ITC(P.N.)/54.—Attention of the importers is invited to Remarks 2(b) against Serial No. 177, Part IV, of Section II of the Policy Red Book for July-December 1954, according to which licence holders will not be permitted to utilise more than 15 per cent. of the face value of their licences for import of 120 Deniers art silk yarn in bright finishes and not more than 5 per cent. of the face value of their licences for the import of 150 Deniers art silk yarn in bright finishes. Having regard to the shortage in the supply of these Deniers, it has been decided to increase the face value percentage to 25 in the case of 120 Deniers art silk yarn and 10 in the case of 150 Deniers art silk yarn. This increase will automatically apply to the licences issued prior to the date of this Notice in respect of the current period.

The entry appearing in Column No. 6 at 2(b) against Serial No. 177, Part IV, Section II at pages 130-131 of the Red Book for July-December 1954, will be substituted by the following entry:—

“Licence holders will not be permitted to utilise more than 25 per cent. of the face value of their licences for import of 120 Deniers art silk yarn in bright finish and not more than 10 per cent. of the face value of their licences for the import of 150 Deniers art silk yarn in bright finishes. These restrictions will apply to all types of yarn including Acetate, but excluding Bernberg and other non-viscose yarn of 120 and 150 Deniers”.
